A Private House Of Prayer by Leslie D. Weatherhead I want to suggest that, since there is no limit to our imagination, no limited quota of building material, we can have not just one room but a whole house. I will tell you about my house of prayer and offer you a. month in it, and then you can build your own and furnish it with some of the glorious truths and promises of our faith. And you can ...

a house of prayer means more than having a weekly prayer meeting or including prayer as part of the Sunday worship service. It means more than prayer events in a church facility or a smattering of prayer activities on the schedule. These may be expressions of being a house of prayer but they are not constituent of it any more than are a CD player or GPS in a car. The vehicle can function ...
