review 1: I am amazed at how I had come to belief the lies purported about Thomas Jefferson. They are stated as if they are fact, as one current author quotes another, rather going to the original sources and documents of his day.

The Jefferson Lies: Exposing The Myths You've Always

Such are the insights found in The Jefferson Lies. I found this book a very compelling defense of Thomas Jefferson, dispelling many of the myths and lies being spread by revisionist would-be historians who tend to take brief historical statements out of context, or quote one another instead of the original sources in context. This book contains count
